Description

Description:

The activity of our fat cells is rhythmic by the alternation day / night.

At night, it is the moment when micro-circulation intensifies and allows the body to eliminate accumulated toxins.

The day, after a night of fasting, the organism needs energy and will draw naturally from its reserves. Hence the importance of providing recognized assets at this time to reinforce this natural rhythm.

1) Day action: eliminate fat and regulate sugars

Guarana helps to burn and release stored fats.

Chromium contributes to the normal metabolism of macronutrients. Indeed, it plays a role in the transformation and use of sugars and fats by the body.

2) Night action: eliminate water and fight against cellulite

Grape marc helps to drain and disinfect excess water to fight the orange peel appearance.
The garcinia completes this formula.
