Description

Description:

An addictive scent that captures the grape blossom's warmth and subtleness.

To share the charming experience of the scents that delicately perfume the air in the Smith Haut Lafitte vineyard, Caudalie centered this fresh fragrance around the essence of grape blossom. When a grape vine flowers in early June, every winemaker begins the traditional 110-day countdown to the harvest. In this fragrance, the master perfumer Anne Flipo sought the grape blossom's warm spirit and subtle essence, creating a fragrance that includes notes of white rose and hawthorn flowers that mingle with light touches of pink pepper, aqueous sap, and the woody warmth of cedar.
