Description

Description:

This intensive nourishing cream is light enough to be used as a daily day cream. Based on organic virgin coconut oil, a natural anti-microbial rich in medium chain triglycerides, with added Aloe Vera leaf juice, extracts of papaya, mango, cocoa seed, mangosteen, fig and orange, plus bergamot fruit oil, lemon peel oil and vitamins C and E.

Deeply nourishing, wonderfully soothing, and designed to smooth and even the skin tone.

This hydrating day cream is light enough to use everyday, but rich enough to nourish even dry skin. With medium chain triglycerides from organic virgin coconut oil, this face cream can help improve hydration, firmness and skin tone using plant extracts and organic oils.

Use:

Apply with light upward strokes after cleansing the face. Can be used under makeup.
