Description

Description:

Nectar Royal - Royal Jelly + Ginseng

Helps stimulate and tone the body with ginseng

For who ?

For people who want to stimulate, tone their body and preserve their physical and intellectual performance as well as resistance to transient fatigue.

Royal jelly is a precious substance of the hive secreted by working bees. Very nutritious, it is destined to the queen's nourishment throughout its existence, which lives more than 40 times longer than the other bees. Used in the Far East, ginseng is considered a true "root of youth" because of its content of ginsenosides. It is known for its stimulating and energizing properties.

Use:

Take 1 capsule a day in the morning, swallow with a glass of water.

Program : 1 month. To be renewed if necessary.
