Description

Description:

The Nexcare Maternity Support is an adjustable support belt designed to support your bump during pregnancy, helping to spread the weight evenly and reduce back and abdominal pain. The support lifts the abdomen to help relieve lower back pain caused by the increasing weight of your bump. It also helps to relieve pelvic girdle pain and improves your posture by stabilising your abdomen. The Nexcare Maternity Support is made from latex-free soft elastic, and is fully adjustable as your bump grows.

Features:

- Ease the strain of pregnancy - be pregnant and comfortable too
- Latex-free soft elastic provides gentle yet firm support
- Lifts the abdomen and helps relieve discomfort in your back and abdomen
- Fully adjustable to accommodate your changing shape
- Made from soft & breathable elastics
- Latex-free
- Dimensions: 27cm (H) x 18cm (W) x 5cm (D)
