Description

Nutrisante Manhae+ No Hormone offers a nutritional solution of natural origin without any source of synthetic or vegetable hormones, suitable for all women. It contains Turmeric to take care of the joints during menopause. Besides, Manhaé + contains endo phospholipids which are complex lipids rich in long-chain polyunsaturated fatty acids of the Omega-3 family and citrus flavonoids from sweet orange.

Nutrisante Manhae+ No Hormone combines complementary assets in two unique formulas:

-Orange capsule:

The turmeric, whose properties help preserve the joints and ensure the maintenance of good mobility and flexibility of the joints of women in everyday life: knee, hip, back, ankle, wrist, shoulder ... Turmeric also contributes to the normal functioning of the immune system. In addition, it participates in good digestion.

The black pepper contains piperine and increases the absorption of turmeric.

-Black capsule:

The EPA and DHA are family long chain polyunsaturated fatty acids Omega-3.

The iron and vitamin B9 help reduce tiredness.

The beta-carotene also called provitamin A, is a precursor of vitamin A that plays a role in the health of the skin. The latter associated with borage oil helps to maintain the radiance of the skin.

The zinc and vitamin E , help protect cells against oxidative stress.

The zinc helps maintain the health of skin, hair and nails.

Use:

1 orange capsule and 1 black capsule to swallow a day.

The capsules should be taken during 2 different meals.
