Description

Description:

PHYTO 9 is a combination of macadamia oil and plant extracts selected for their hydrating and nourishing properties. Soybean, calendula, burdock and mallow help maintain an optimum moisture level for the keratin inside the hair fiber. A real day cream for the hair. Nourished and protected from the inside out, hair is quickly left shiny, supple and soft. The day cream for very, very dry hair. No need to rinse, perfect for the ends

Use:

After shampooing, spread a pea-sized amount to well towel-dried or dry hair. Apply to all the hair, concentrating on the ends. Style.
