Description

Description:

UR-10 SMOOTHING ANTI-ROUGHING CREAM is the ideal cream for skins commonly called "croco skins". With its concentration of urea (10%) and beeswax, this cream effectively restores moisture, restores the protective film of the skin, nourishes intensely and provides all the comfort that extra-dry skin needs. Day after day, your skin becomes softer and more comfortable

Ideal for very dry and rough skin

PARABEN FREE

Use:

Apply by emphasizing the rough areas of the body (arms, elbows, legs, heels). Do not apply to the face, lesions, or skin of children under 3 years.
